Allegations: Rea 301.04 (b)

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

In order to avoid the delay and expense of further proceedings and to promote the best interests of the public and the practice of real estate, the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) and Peter H. Hickey (“the Licensee” or “the Respondent”), a real estate broker currently licensed by the Commission until July 25, 2015, agree to resolve certain allegations of professional misconduct now pending before the Commission in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. The parties stipulate that the Commission has jurisdiction to institute a disciplinary proceeding against the Respondent pursuant to RSA 331-A:29, I and RSA 541-A:31, V, and if such a proceeding were commenced, the allegations against the Respondent would be:

Respondent had failed to make good on check #1403 dated December 23, 2013 in the amount of $170 rendered as payment for his NH real estate broker license renewal and late fee, which his bank marked “Not Sufficient Funds”, nor had Respondent paid the additional assessment fees required by the State of New Hampshire for the dishonored check (total amount due $203). numerous attempts to contact the Respondent in efforts to obtain compliance. Subsequent to this complaint Respondent has paid in full.

2. The Respondent acknowledges and does not contest the allegations described in Paragraph 1 above.
3. The Respondent consents to the Commission imposing the following discipline, pursuant to RSA 331-A:28, I. The Respondent acknowledges his non-compliance and agrees that it will not happen again in the future.
4. The Respondent's failure to adhere to any requirement imposed by this Agreement shall be a separate and sufficient ground for disciplinary action by the Commission.
5. Except as provided in Item 3 and 4 above, this Agreement shall forever bar further disciplinary action or other adverse action by the Commission based upon the specific allegations described above in Paragraph 1, provided, however, that this Agreement may be considered by the Commission in determining whether the Respondent has engaged in a pattern of misconduct, or in determining the nature of any sanctions which may be imposed in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding arising out of different misconduct allegations.
6. The Respondent voluntarily signs this Settlement Agreement and states that no promises or representations have been made to him other than those terms and conditions expressly stated herein.
7. Respondent understands that his action in entering into this agreement is a final act and not subject to reconsideration or judicial review or appeal.

8. Respondent has had the opportunity to seek and obtain the advice of an attorney of his choosing in connection with his decision to enter into this Agreement.
9. Respondent understands that the Commission must review and accept the terms of this Agreement. If the Commission rejects any portion, the entire Agreement shall be null and void. Respondent specifically waives any claims that any disclosures made to the Commission during its review of this Agreement have prejudiced his right to a fair and impartial hearing in the future if this Agreement is not accepted by the Commission.
10. Respondent certifies that he has read this document titled Settlement Agreement. Respondent understands that he has the right to a formal adjudicatory hearing concerning this matter and that at said hearing he would possess the rights to confront and cross-examine witnesses, to call witnesses, to present evidence, to testify on his own behalf, to contest the allegations, to present oral argument, and to appeal to the courts. Further, Respondent fully understands the nature, qualities and dimensions of these rights. Respondent understands that by signing this Agreement, he waives these rights as they pertain to the misconduct described herein.
