File No. 2014-031 NH Real Estate Commission v. Edward A. Lucier
Allegations: RSA 331-A:26, I; Rea 401.01 (a), (21)

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

In order to avoid the delay and expense of further proceedings and to promote the best interests of the public and the practice of real estate, the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) and Edward A. Lucier (“the Licensee” or “the Respondent”), a real estate broker currently expired since August 14, 2014, agree to resolve certain allegations of professional misconduct now pending before the Commission in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. The parties stipulate that the Commission has jurisdiction to institute a disciplinary proceeding against the Respondent pursuant to RSA 331-A:29, I and RSA 541-A:31, V, and if such a proceeding were commenced, the allegations against the Respondent would be:

Respondent submitted his NH real estate broker license renewal application to the Commission which was received at the Commission office on July 7, 2004, and he answered “No” to question #8: “Have any licenses which you have held to sell real estate been subject to disciplinary action in any state since your last original or renewal application.”

However, Respondent had entered into a Stipulation & Consent Order with the Vermont Real Estate Commission and Respondent received a warning from the Vermont Real Estate Commission; this Stipulation & Consent Order was approved by the Vermont Real Estate Commission on January 22, 2004.

2. The Respondent acknowledges and does not contest the allegations described in Paragraph 1 above.
3. The Respondent consents to the Commission imposing the following, pursuant to RSA 331-A:28. The Respondent acknowledges that he should have answered "yes" rather than "no" to question #8 on his NH real estate broker license renewal application: "Have any licenses which you have held to sell real estate been subject to disciplinary action in any state since your last original or renewal application" regarding the warning he received from the Vermont Real Estate Commission. Respondent acknowledges his non-compliance and agrees that it will not happen again in the future.
4. The Respondent's failure to adhere to any requirement imposed by this Agreement shall be a separate and sufficient ground for disciplinary action by the Commission.
5. Except as provided in Item 3 and 4 above, this Agreement shall forever bar further disciplinary action or other adverse action by the Commission based upon the specific allegations described above in Paragraph 1, provided, however, that this Agreement may be considered by the Commission in determining whether the Respondent has engaged in a pattern of misconduct, or in determining the nature of any sanctions which may be imposed in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding arising out of different misconduct allegations.

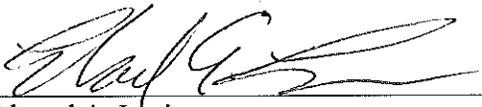

6. The Respondent voluntarily signs this Settlement Agreement and states that no promises or representations have been made to him other than those terms and conditions expressly stated herein.
7. Respondent understands that his action in entering into this agreement is a final act and not subject to reconsideration or judicial review or appeal.
8. Respondent has had the opportunity to seek and obtain the advice of an attorney of his choosing in connection with his decision to enter into this Agreement.
9. Respondent understands that the Commission must review and accept the terms of this Agreement. If the Commission rejects any portion, the entire Agreement shall be null and void. Respondent specifically waives any claims that any disclosures made to the Commission during its review of this Agreement have prejudiced his right to a fair and impartial hearing in the future if this Agreement is not accepted by the Commission.
10. Respondent certifies that he has read this document titled Settlement Agreement. Respondent understands that he has the right to a formal adjudicatory hearing concerning this matter and that at said hearing he would possess the rights to confront and cross-examine witnesses, to call witnesses, to present evidence, to testify on his own behalf, to contest the allegations, to present oral argument, and to appeal to the courts. Further, Respondent fully understands the nature, qualities and dimensions of these rights. Respondent understands that by signing this Agreement, he waives these rights as they pertain to the misconduct described herein.

11. The effective date of this Agreement shall be on the date it is signed by the representative of the Commission shown below.

Lucier, have reviewed the forgoing Settlement Agreement settling misconduct allegations pending against me, and, of my own free will and without duress, and being knowledgeable about all of the consequences, admit to the validity thereof, and agree to all of the terms of this Settlement Agreement.
