

Amend Bar 301.03 (t), (u) effective 3-18-16 (document #11055) cited to read as follows:

Bar 301.03 Apprenticeship

(t) Online instruction shall be limited to the theory portion only and no more than 25% of the total course. Notwithstanding, during a State of Emergency declared by the Governor of New Hampshire, apprentices shall be allowed to complete the theory and practical portion 100% distance learning until the expiration / termination of the declared State of Emergency; and in compliance with one of the following standards:

(1) For schools accredited through the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts and Sciences (“NACCAS”), the temporary COVID-19 distance learning standards issued and in place by NACCAS, , including but not limited to receiving NACCAS Temporary Distance Education (“TDE”) authorization prior to implementing the TDE program; or

(2) For schools not accredited through NACCAS, the accreditation standards set forth by the accrediting authority with whom the school is registered.

(u) No practical or clinical instruction shall be permitted through online education. Notwithstanding, during a State of Emergency declared by the Governor of New Hampshire, apprentices shall be allowed to complete the theory and practical portion 100% distance learning until the expiration / termination of the declared State of Emergency; and in compliance with one of the following standards:

(1) For schools accredited through the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts and Sciences (“NACCAS”), the temporary COVID-19 distance learning standards issued and in place by NACCAS, , including but not limited to receiving NACCAS Temporary Distance Education (“TDE”) authorization prior to implementing the TDE program; or

(2) For schools not accredited through NACCAS, the accreditation standards set forth by the accrediting authority with whom the school is registered.

Amend Bar 404.08 (c) (11), (d) effective 9-19-13 (document # 10412-B) cited to read as follows:

Bar 404.08 Violation Points for a School.

(c) For each violation of the following, 50 points shall be issued:

(11) Allowing more than 25% of the course to be done through online education. Notwithstanding, during a State of Emergency declared by the Governor of New Hampshire, apprentices shall be allowed to complete the theory and practical portion 100% distance learning until the expiration / termination of the declared State of Emergency; and in compliance with one of the following standards:

(1) For schools accredited through the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts and Sciences (“NACCAS”), the temporary COVID-19 distance learning standards issued and in place by NACCAS, , including but not limited to receiving NACCAS Temporary Distance Education (“TDE”) authorization prior to implementing the TDE program; or

(2) For schools not accredited through NACCAS, the accreditation standards set forth by the accrediting authority with whom the school is registered.

(d) 100 points shall be issued for allowing practical or clinical instruction through online education.

Notwithstanding, during a State of Emergency declared by the Governor of New Hampshire, apprentices shall be allowed to complete the theory and practical portion 100% distance learning until the expiration / termination of the declared State of Emergency; and in compliance with one of the following standards:

(1) For schools accredited through the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts and Sciences (“NACCAS”), the temporary COVID-19 distance learning standards issued and in place by NACCAS, , including but not limited to receiving NACCAS Temporary Distance Education (“TDE”) authorization prior to implementing the TDE program; or

(2) For schools not accredited through NACCAS, the accreditation standards set forth by the accrediting authority with whom the school is registered.

Appendix

Rule	Statute
Bar 301.03 (t), (u)	RSA 313-A: 24
Bar 404.08 (c)(11), (d)	RSA 313:A: 8, XVII, RSA 313-A: 22, III