In the Matter of:

File No. 2012-030 New Hampshire Real Estate Commission v. William A. Hazel &
Beacon Exchange Company LLC

Allegations: RSA 331-A:20, V (m)

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

In order to avoid the delay and expense of further proceedings and to promote the best interests of the public and the practice of real estate, the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) and Respondents William A. Hazel (“the Instructor”) and Beacon Exchange Company, LLC (“the Provider”), agree to resolve certain allegations of professional misconduct now pending before the Commission in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. The parties stipulate that the Commission has jurisdiction to institute a disciplinary proceeding against the Respondents pursuant to RSA 331-A:29, I and RSA 541-A:31, V, and if such a proceeding were commenced, the allegations against the Respondents would be:

On 8/14/12 Respondent William A. Hazel as instructor for Respondent Beacon Exchange Company LLC, taught course #E1079 “Section 1031 Exchanges”; however, the accreditation for this course had not been renewed at that time and had expired on June 1, 2012.

2. The Respondents acknowledge and do not contest the allegations described in Paragraph 1 above.

3. The Respondents consent to the Commission imposing the following discipline, pursuant to RSA 331-A:28, I. The Respondents shall each pay a disciplinary fine in the amount of two-hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for a total of five-hundred dollars ($500) to the New Hampshire Real Estate Commission, payable to the Treasurer State of New Hampshire within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this Settlement Agreement. The Respondents' failure to adhere to any requirement imposed by this Agreement shall be a separate and sufficient ground for disciplinary action by the Commission.
4. Except as provided in Item 3 and 4 above, this Agreement shall forever bar further disciplinary action or other adverse action by the Commission based upon the specific allegations described above in Paragraph 1, provided, however, that this Agreement may be considered by the Commission in determining whether the Respondents have engaged in a pattern of misconduct, or in determining the nature of any sanctions which may be imposed in any subsequent disciplinary proceeding arising out of different misconduct allegations.
5. The Respondents voluntarily sign this Settlement Agreement and state that no promises or representations have been made other than those terms and conditions expressly stated herein.
6. Respondents understand that entering into this agreement is a final act and not subject to reconsideration or judicial review or appeal.
7. Respondents have had the opportunity to seek and obtain the advice of an attorney of their choosing in connection with their decision to enter into this Agreement.

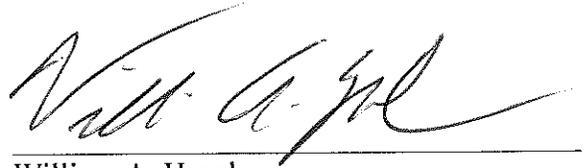

8. Respondents understand that the Commission must review and accept the terms of this Agreement. If the Commission rejects any portion, the entire Agreement shall be null and void. Respondents specifically waive any claims that any disclosures made to the Commission during its review of this Agreement have prejudiced their right to a fair and impartial hearing in the future if this Agreement is not accepted by the Commission.
9. Respondents certify that they have read this document titled Settlement Agreement. Respondents understand that they have the right to a formal adjudicatory hearing concerning this matter and that at said hearing they would possess the rights to confront and cross-examine witnesses, to call witnesses, to present evidence, to testify on their own behalf, to contest the allegations, to present oral argument, and to appeal to the courts. Further, Respondents fully understand the nature, qualities and dimensions of these rights. Respondents understand that by signing this Agreement, they waive these rights as they pertain to the misconduct described herein.
10. The effective date of this Agreement shall be on the date it is signed by the representative of the Commission shown below.
