Plc 304.08 Review of Complete Applications for Initial Licensure; Inspections.

- (a) After determining that an application is complete, the licensing bureau shall review the application to determine whether the applicant meets all criteria specified in applicable law for the license being applied for, provided that:
- (1) If an inspection is required prior to licensure, the licensing bureau shall refer the application to the inspection assignment coordinator for an inspection to be conducted in accordance with the applicable provisions in Plc 400; and

- (2) If the licensing bureau determines that the technical or professional expertise of the applicable board would be of assistance in determining whether the applicant meets the criteria for licensure, the licensing bureau shall refer the application to the applicable board for review and a recommendation as provided in (c), below.
- (b) Subject to (c), below, and Plc 304.09, the licensing bureau shall make a decision on a complete application for initial licensure within 60 days of determining that an application is complete.
- (c) If an application is referred to the applicable board pursuant to (a)(2), above, then:
- (1) The board chair shall review the application to determine whether a reasonable person having the education and experience of a competent licensee would have any doubt about the applicant's qualifications, provided that if another board member is better qualified than the chair to review the application, the chair shall delegate the review under this section to that board member;
  - (2) If the board chair or designee determines that a reasonable person having the education and experience of a competent licensee would believe the applicant is unquestionably qualified, the board chair or designee shall recommend to the licensing bureau that a license be issued;
  - (3) If the board chair or designee determines that a reasonable person having the education and experience of a competent licensee would believe the applicant is unquestionably not qualified, the board chair or designee shall recommend to the licensing bureau that a license not be issued, with an explanation of why the applicant is not qualified;
  - (4) If the board chair or designee determines that reasonable people having the education and experience of competent licensees could disagree about whether the applicant is qualified, the board chair or designee shall:
    - a. Present the application to the board for discussion and a recommendation, if the next regularly-scheduled board meeting is soon enough that a recommendation can be conveyed to the licensing bureau within 55 days of receiving the application from the licensing bureau; or
    - b. If the next regularly-scheduled board meeting is not soon enough that a recommendation could be conveyed to the licensing bureau within 55 days, either:
      1. Convene a special meeting of the board to obtain a timely recommendation, or request that a special meeting of the board be convened if the review was delegated; or
      2. Present the reasons for and against issuing a license to the licensing bureau in lieu of a recommendation; and
  - (5) If the board does not provide a recommendation or reasons for and against issuing the license to the licensing bureau within the specified time period, the licensing bureau shall make a decision without the board's input.

Plc 304.09 Decisions on Applications for Initial Licensure.

- (a) If the applicant has demonstrated that all eligibility criteria specified in applicable law for initial licensure have been met and that none of the grounds for denying initial licensure specified in Plc 311.03 apply, the licensing bureau shall approve the application and issue an initial license to the applicant at the applicant's designated email address, subject to (b), below.

(b) Any application for a pharmacy license shall be subject to the inspection and licensing issuance or denial described in Ph 305.02, “Site Inspection for Pharmacy Permit”, or successor rule in Ph 300 relative to processing applications for initial licensure of pharmaceutical entities, but shall remain subject to this chapter for all other licensing matters.

(c) If the applicant has not demonstrated that all eligibility criteria specified in applicable law for full initial licensure have been met but applicable law provides for conditional initial licensure and the applicant has demonstrated that all eligibility criteria for conditional initial licensure have been met and that none of the grounds for denying initial licensure specified in Plc 311.03 apply, the licensing bureau shall approve the application and issue a conditional initial license to the applicant at the applicant’s designated email address.

(d) If the applicant has not demonstrated that all eligibility criteria specified in applicable law have been met for full initial licensure or for conditional initial licensure, or if any of the grounds for denying initial licensure specified in Plc 311.03 apply, the licensing bureau shall:

- (1) Issue a denial of the application; and
- (2) Inform the applicant by email sent to the applicant’s designated email address of the reason(s) for the denial and that the denial shall become final if the applicant does not file a petition for a hearing in accordance with Plc 304.10 within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial, provided that if the last day of the period is not a working day, the deadline shall extend to 4:00 p.m. of the first working day following.

(e) For purposes of determining the date the denial was received, a denial sent to the applicant’s designated email address shall be presumed to be received not later than one calendar day after the date the licensing bureau sent the denial.

(f) If the applicant does not file a petition for a hearing within the time period specified in the notice issued pursuant to (d), above, the denial shall become final.

(g) If the application is denied, no application-related fees shall be refunded.

Plc 304.10 Challenging a Denial of Initial Licensure; Challenging License Conditions.

(a) An applicant who wishes to challenge the denial of an application for initial licensure made pursuant to Plc 304.09, or who wishes to challenge any condition(s) included in the license, shall submit a “Petition for Hearing After Initial Denial of Licensure or Issuance of License with Conditions”, dated May 2025, that is signed and attested to as provided in (b) and (c), below, to the OPLC hearings clerk at hearingsclerk@oplc.nh.gov or, if filing electronically is impracticable for the petitioner, by mailing it to the attention of the hearings clerk at the OPLC’s mailing address as listed in Plc 103.03.

(b) The petitioner or petitioner’s authorized representative shall sign and date the petition, provided that if the petition is filed electronically, the act of submitting the petition shall constitute the signature and the date of submittal shall be the date.

(c) The signature provided pursuant to (b), above, shall constitute attestation that:

- (1) The signer has read the petition for hearing;
- (2) The signer is authorized to file the petition for hearing;
- (3) To the best of the signer’s knowledge, information, and belief, there are good grounds to support the petition for hearing; and
- (4) The petition for hearing has not been filed solely or primarily for purposes of delay or harassment in any pending or anticipated administrative, civil, or criminal proceeding.

(d) As required by RSA 310:14, I-a, the petition for hearing shall be filed within 30 calendar days of receipt of the denial of licensure, provided that if a petition for hearing is filed more than 31 days after the date of the denial of licensure, the petitioner shall have the burden of proving that the denial was received more than one day after the date the licensing bureau sent the denial.

(e) When a petition for hearing is received, the hearings clerk shall:

- (1) Notify the licensing bureau with information sufficient for the licensing bureau to identify the underlying application; and
- (2) Docket the matter for a hearing before the applicable board.

(f) Upon receipt of notice from the hearings clerk, the licensing bureau shall forward the application file to the hearings clerk.

(g) An applicant who requests a hearing who is on active military duty may request the hearing to be deferred until the applicant is no longer on active duty.

Plc 308.01 Applicability; License Expiration.

(a) This part shall apply to any licensee who has not filed a renewal application on or before the May 2024 effective date of this part.

(b) As provided in RSA 310:8, II, all issued licenses shall expire 2 years from the date the license was issued, provided that the filing of a timely and complete application for license renewal by an eligible applicant shall continue the validity of the license being renewed until final action has been taken on the renewal application.

(c) As provided in RSA 310:8, III:

(1) Applicants shall submit completed applications for renewal, the application-related fees for renewal, and any supporting documents required for that renewal on or before the expiration date of the license;

(2) A license shall expire if a completed renewal application, application-related fees for renewal, and supporting documents have not been filed on or before the expiration date of the license; and

(3) The holder of an expired license that has not yet lapsed shall not be authorized to practice unless and until the license has been reinstated in accordance with Plc 312.

(d) As required by RSA 310:2, I(e), a former licensee whose license has lapsed, who wishes to resume practice, shall apply for a new license.

(a) As required by RSA 310:8, IV, at least 2 months prior to the expiration of a license, the licensing bureau shall notify, via email sent to the licensee's designated email address, each licensee whose license is expiring that the license is due to expire.

(b) The licensing bureau shall include the following in the email sent pursuant to (a), above:

(1) A clear statement that failure to submit a complete application on or before the expiration date shall result in the license expiring; and

(2) Complete information and instructions for the licensee to renew on-line or, if the renewal application is not yet available on-line, a renewal application.

(c) As provided in RSA 310:8, IV, failure to receive notice shall not relieve any licensee of the obligation to renew their license, comply with the rules of the OPLC, the rules of the applicable board, or RSA 310:8.

(d) If a licensee does not receive information and instructions or an application as provided in (b)(2), above, the licensee shall contact the OPLC at customersupport@oplc.nh.gov to obtain the needed information or an application.

Plc 308.08 Signature and Attestation Required for Renewal Applications.

- (a) The applicant for license renewal, or the duly-authorized individual for an applicant that is an entity, shall sign and date the application, provided that for applications that are submitted electronically, the act of submitting the application shall constitute the signature and the date of submittal shall be the date.
- (b) The signature shall constitute the applicant’s attestation that:

- (1) The applicant is not under investigation by any professional licensing board and the applicant's credentials have not been suspended or revoked by any professional licensing board, or a written explanation of each such occurrence is being submitted with the application pursuant to Plc 308.07(a);
- (2) If required by applicable law, the applicant has completed the survey or opt-out form provided by the office of rural health, department of health and human services;
- (3) The information and documentation provided are true, complete, and not misleading to the best of the applicant's knowledge and belief;
- (4) The applicant understands that providing false or misleading information constitutes grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license;
- (5) The applicant understands that providing false material information constitutes a misdemeanor under RSA 641:3 relative to falsification in official matters; and
- (6) The applicant understands that if the applicant fails to submit a complete application prior to the expiration of the applicant's current license, the applicant's license shall expire by operation of law, specifically RSA 310:8, III.

Readopt with amendments Plc 308.11 and Plc 308.12, eff. 12-1-24 (doc. #14134, Interim), to read as follows:

Plc 308.11 Review of Complete Renewal Applications; Decisions.

(a) After determining that an application is complete, the licensing bureau shall review the application to determine whether the applicant meets all criteria specified in applicable law for the license renewal being applied for, provided that:

- (1) If an inspection is required prior to renewing licensure, the licensing bureau shall refer the application to the inspection assignment coordinator for an inspection to be conducted; and
- (2) If the licensing bureau determines that the technical or professional expertise of the applicable board would be of assistance in determining whether the applicant meets the criteria for license renewal, the licensing bureau shall refer the application to the applicable board for review and a recommendation in accordance with the process established in Plc 304.08(c).

(b) Subject to (c) through (e), below, the licensing bureau shall make a decision on a complete application for renewal licensure within 60 days of determining that an application is complete.

(c) If an inspection is required by applicable law before a license can be renewed, the inspector shall conduct the inspection as provided in Plc 405.

(d) If the applicant has demonstrated that all eligibility criteria specified in applicable law for a renewal license have been met and that none of the grounds for refusing to renew a license specified in Plc 311.04 apply, the licensing bureau shall approve the application and renew the license with notification to the applicant at the applicant's designated email address.

(e) If the applicant has not demonstrated that all eligibility criteria specified in applicable law have been met for license renewal or if any of the grounds for refusing to renew a license specified in Plc 311.04 apply, the licensing bureau shall:

- (1) Issue a denial of the application; and

(2) Inform the applicant of the reason(s) for the denial and that the denial shall become final if the applicant does not file a request for a hearing in accordance with Plc 308.12 within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial, provided that if the last day of the period is not a working day, the deadline shall extend to 4:00 p.m. of the first working day following.

(f) For purposes of determining the date the denial was received, a denial sent to the applicant's designated email address shall be presumed to be received not later than one calendar day after the date the licensing bureau sent the denial.

(g) If the applicant does not file a request for a hearing within the time period specified in the notice issued pursuant to (e), above, the denial shall become final.

(h) If the application is denied, then:

(1) The licensee shall no longer be authorized to practice as of the date the denial becomes final;

(2) If the person wishes to practice in New Hampshire, a complete application for reinstatement shall be filed, including new application-related fees; and

(3) The application-related fees paid with the renewal application shall not be refunded.

Plc 308.12 Challenging a Denial of Renewal Licensure; Challenging License Conditions.

(a) An applicant who wishes to challenge the denial of an application for renewal licensure made pursuant to Plc 308.11 or who wishes to challenge any condition(s) included in the license shall submit a "Petition for Hearing After Initial Denial of Licensure or Issuance of License with Conditions", dated May 2025, that is signed and attested to as provided in (b) and (c), below, to the OPLC hearings clerk at hearingsclerk@oplc.nh.gov.

(b) The petitioner or petitioner's authorized representative shall sign and date the petition, provided that if the petition is filed electronically, the act of submitting the petition shall constitute the signature and the date of submittal shall be the date.

(c) The signature provided pursuant to (b), above, shall constitute attestation that:

(1) The signer has read the petition for hearing;

(2) The signer is authorized to file the petition for hearing;

(3) To the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, there are good grounds to support the petition for hearing; and

(4) The petition for hearing has not been filed solely or primarily for purposes of delay or harassment in any pending or anticipated administrative, civil, or criminal proceeding.

(d) As required by RSA 310:14, I-a, the petition for hearing shall be filed within 30 calendar days of receipt of the denial of licensure, provided that if a petition for hearing is filed more than 31 days after the date of the denial of licensure, the petitioner shall have the burden of proving that the denial was not received within one day of being sent by the licensing bureau.

(e) Upon receipt of a petition for hearing, the hearings clerk shall:

(1) Notify the licensing bureau with information sufficient for the licensing bureau to identify the underlying application; and

(2) Docket the matter for a hearing before the applicable board.

(f) Upon receipt of a notice from the hearings clerk, the licensing bureau shall forward the application file to the hearings clerk.

(g) An applicant who requests a hearing who is on active military duty may request that the hearing be deferred until the applicant is no longer on active duty.

Plc 308.15 Refund of Fees When License Relinquished.

(a) As provided in RSA 310:5, I, a licensee possessing a license in good standing may, if to the best of the licensee's knowledge the licensee is not the subject of an ongoing investigation or disciplinary action, surrender, or relinquish, their license and receive a pro-rated refund as provided in this section.

(b) To request a pro-rated refund, the licensee shall submit a "Relinquishment of License and Request for Fee Refund" form dated May 2025 to the licensing bureau that:

- (1) Contains the information required by (c), below; and
- (2) Is signed and attested to in accordance with (d) and (e), below.

(c) The licensee requesting the refund, hereinafter "requestor", shall provide the following information on the form required by (b), above:

- (1) The requestor's name as shown on the license, the profession, and the license number;
- (2) The date the current license was issued;
- (3) If the requestor's designated email address in the OPLC's records is no longer valid, an updated email address;
- (4) If the requestor is an entity, the name, title, and daytime telephone number of the individual who is authorized by the entity to communicate with the OPLC regarding the request; and
- (5) An explanation of each reason why the requestor wishes to relinquish the license, including but not limited to:
  - a. The requestor is retiring, and the profession does not have a "retired" status or has one that the licensee does not wish to use;
  - b. The requestor is leaving the profession and has no reasonable expectation of wanting to practice in the profession in the future;
  - c. The requestor has moved to another jurisdiction and no longer wishes to maintain licensure in New Hampshire;
  - d. The requestor is planning to leave the profession for more than 2 years and does not wish to maintain the license while not practicing; or
  - e. The requestor is closing its business and will not be transferring its license to any other person.

(d) The requestor or the requestor's duly-authorized representative shall sign and date the request, provided that for requests that are submitted electronically, the act of submitting the application shall constitute the signature and the date of submittal shall be the date.

(e) The signature shall constitute the requestor's attestation that:

- (1) To the best of the requestor's knowledge and belief, the requestor is not under investigation by any professional licensing board and the requestor's credentials have not been suspended or revoked by any professional licensing board;
  - (2) The requestor fully understands that relinquishing the license means the requestor will no longer be authorized to practice in New Hampshire in the profession for which the license was issued;
  - (3) The information provided is true, complete, and not misleading to the best of the requestor's knowledge and belief;
  - (4) The requestor understands that providing false or misleading information constitutes grounds to deny the requested refund and to suspend or revoke the requestor's license; and
  - (5) The requestor understands that knowingly providing false material information constitutes a misdemeanor under RSA 641:3 relative to falsification in official matters.
- (f) Upon receipt of a request for fee refund, the licensing bureau shall:
- (1) Contact the enforcement division to determine whether the requestor is the subject of an ongoing investigation or disciplinary action; and
  - (2) If the requestor is not the subject of an ongoing investigation or disciplinary action, then:
    - a. Determine how much of the license term remains; and
    - b. Forward the information gathered to the OPLC finance office.
- (g) If the requestor is the subject of an ongoing investigation or disciplinary action, the licensing bureau shall deny the request for refund in writing sent to the requestor's designated email address that explains the reason(s) for the denial.
- (h) The finance office shall calculate the amount of the refund by:
- (1) Determining what percentage of the license period is remaining;
  - (2) Determining what fee the licensee paid for the current license;
  - (3) Calculating the amount of the refund by:
    - a. Subtracting $25 to cover costs of processing the request; and
    - b. Multiplying the result by the percentage of the licensing period remaining; and
  - (4) Applying (j) and (k), below, if applicable.
- (i) After a determination is made in accordance with (h), above, the director of operations shall approve the request and direct the finance office to issue the refund.
- (j) No refund request shall be accepted within the first 90 days of a license period, provided that a licensee may request a waiver of the time limit in accordance with Plc 211 if the request arises from circumstances beyond the licensee's control that could not be reasonably anticipated when the license was initially issued or renewed.
- (k) No refund shall exceed 90% of the applicable application fee.

(b) The applicable board shall review the submitted plan of correction and:

(1) Approve the plan, if it:

a. Addresses each violation that provided a basis for the disciplinary proceeding; and

b. Identifies one or more specific actions that the licensee shall take and specifies a deadline for taking each action that is reasonable based on the nature of the action to be taken; or

(2) Return the plan to the licensee for revision and resubmission if the plan does not meet the requirements for approval specified in (1), above.

(c) A licensee whose license was suspended may request the license to be restored as provided in Plc 312.04.

(d) If a license is revoked, any subsequent application for licensure shall include a plan of correction that addresses each violation that provided a basis for the disciplinary proceeding and meets the criteria for approval specified in (b)(1), above.

(e) An individual whose license has been revoked and who wishes to have the New Hampshire license reinstated shall apply for initial licensure in accordance with Plc 312.05.

(f) A license shall not be granted to an individual who previously held a license but whose license was revoked unless and until the individual has complied with the requirements on which the revocation was based and has paid the costs associated with the revocation, if imposed pursuant to RSA 310:12, V or other applicable law.
