Rab 402.02 Disciplinary Sanctions.

(a) Other than immediate license suspensions authorized by RSA 541-A:30, III, the board shall impose disciplinary sanctions on an appraiser only:

- (1) After prior notice and an opportunity to be heard; or
- (2) Pursuant to a mutually agreed upon settlement.

(b) After a finding that an appraiser has committed misconduct, the board shall impose one or more of the disciplinary sanctions authorized by RSA 310-B:18, III.

(c) When a person subject to the board's disciplinary authority is found, after notice and opportunity for hearing, to have committed misconduct, the board shall impose sanctions after considering aggravating and mitigating factors including, as specified in Rab 402.02 (d) and (e):

(d) The following shall be considered aggravating circumstances:

- (1) The seriousness of the offense;
- (2) The licensee's prior disciplinary record;

- (4) Potential harm to the consumer; and
- (5) The purpose of the rule or statute violated.

(e) The following shall be considered mitigating circumstances:

- (1) Absence of a prior disciplinary record;

(f) Copies of board orders imposing disciplinary sanctions and copies of all settlement agreements shall be sent to the licensing body of each state in which the appraiser is licensed and to such other entities, organizations, associations, or boards as are required to be notified under applicable state or federal law.

Rab 402.03 Revocation.

(a) “Revocation” means the permanent and complete cancellation of any specially-conferred rights, authority, or privileges that were granted to an appraiser through RSA 310-B.

(b) The most severe sanction, revocation, shall be imposed only for those cases in which:

- (1) An appraiser has made a third false claim of inspecting a property;
- (2) An appraiser has committed a third major violation of USPAP; or
- (3) An appraiser’s license to practice real estate appraisal in any other state has been revoked.

(c) The minimum period for revocation shall be 3 years commencing from the latter of:

- (1) The date that the revocation goes into effect; or
- (2) The date on which no further appeal may be taken.

(d) Upon receipt of a revocation order from the board, the apprentice or appraiser shall immediately cease holding themselves out to the public as an appraiser. Further, such appraiser shall immediately cease engaging in any act for which licensure or certification issued pursuant to RSA 310-B is required.

(e) Failure to comply with (d) above, shall constitute separate grounds for further disciplinary action.

(f) A subsequent license or certification shall be obtained only after:

- (1) The passage of the amount of time specified in the revocation order;
- (2) Complying with all of the requirements of RSA 310-B and Rab 300 regarding application for an initial license or certification;
- (3) Demonstrating that the cause for revocation does not exist at the time of the subsequent application; and

Rab 402.04 Suspension.

(a) “Suspension” means the temporary withdrawal of any specially-conferred rights, authority, or privileges that were granted to an appraiser through RSA 310-B.

(b) The sanction of suspension shall be imposed only after notice and opportunity for a hearing in those cases in which the board determines that at least one of the following is true:

- (1) An appraiser has, for a third time, engaged in willful acts that are intended to:

- a. Mislead someone who has a right to rely upon the appraisal; or
- b. Influence the value of the subject property in such a way as to favor the client's interests;

(2) An appraiser has, for the third time, violated a competency requirement;

(3) An appraiser has, for the second or subsequent time, failed to disclose assistance provided by others; or

(4) An appraiser's license to practice real estate appraisal in any other state has been suspended;

(c) The minimum period for suspension shall be that amount of time necessary for the appraiser to take corrective action ordered by the board and return to compliance. Suspension shall have no effect upon the expiration of licensure or certification. Specifically, suspension shall not cause expiration to be advanced or delayed.

(d) Upon receipt of a suspension order from the board, the appraiser shall immediately cease holding themselves out to the public as an appraiser. Further, such appraiser shall immediately cease engaging in any act for which licensure or certification is required until the board grants reinstatement pursuant to (f), below.

(e) Failure to comply with (d) above, shall constitute separate grounds for further disciplinary action.

(f) An appraiser seeking reinstatement shall petition the board, providing documentation of all corrective actions taken. The board shall review the petition and supporting documentation and grant the petition if it determines that all corrective action ordered by the board has, in fact, been taken and the appraiser has returned to compliance.

Rab 402.05 Administrative Fines.

(a) Adjudicative procedures seeking the assessment of administrative fines shall be commenced against any person subject to such penalties under any provision of RSA 310-B when the board possesses evidence indicating that a violation has occurred.

(b) When persons subject to the board's disciplinary authority are directed to pay administrative fines in accordance with Rab 402.02, such penalties shall be assessed in accordance with the factors stated in Rab 402.02 (d) and (e) and the following additional considerations:

(1) The cost of any investigation or hearing conducted by the board; and

(2) The licensee's ability to pay an administrative fine assessed by the board.

(c) Administrative fines shall not exceed the following amounts:

(1) When no violation of the same type has occurred within the 3 years preceding the board's notice to the respondent, the penalty assessed shall not exceed $100.00 per day or $1,000.00 per offense whichever is greater;

- (2) When a single disciplinary infraction of the same type has occurred within the 3 years preceding the board’s notice to the respondent, the penalty assessed shall not exceed $100.00 per day or $1,500.00 per offense whichever is greater; and
- (3) When more than one disciplinary infraction of the same type has occurred within the 3 years preceding the board’s notice to the respondent the penalty assessed shall not exceed $100.00 per day or $2,000.00 per offense whichever is greater.
- (d) In the case of continuing violations, a separate penalty shall be assessed for each day the violation continues.
- (e) A single course of continuing conduct shall be treated as a single violation for purposes of Rab 402.05 (c).

Rab 402.06 Procedures for Assessing and Collecting Administrative Fines.

- (a) Payment of administrative fines shall be included among the options available for settling disciplinary allegations, and shall be included among the types of disciplinary sanctions imposed after notice and hearing.
- (b) In cases where the board initially intends to limit disciplinary sanctions to an administrative fine, the board shall issue a “notice of apparent liability” describing the alleged offense, stating the amount of the assessed fine, and notifying the alleged offender that they shall pay the fine by a certain date or request that an administrative hearing be held. If a hearing is requested, the notice of apparent liability shall be withdrawn and a notice of hearing shall be issued. In such hearings, the board’s disciplinary options shall not be limited to the assessment of an administrative fine.
- (c) Nonpayment of an administrative fine by a licensee or respondent in contravention of an order, agreement or promise to pay, shall be grounds for discipline by the board and a basis for judicial action seeking to collect the fine.

Rab 402.07 Disciplinary Continuing Education.

- (a) “Disciplinary continuing education” means any course or seminar that an apprentice or appraiser is ordered, by the board, to take for the purpose of addressing a finding of misconduct based upon deficient appraisal skills, and which is in addition to and does not count toward meeting the continuing education requirements set forth in Rab 403.
- (b) The sanction of disciplinary continuing education shall be imposed only after notice and opportunity for a hearing in those cases in which the board determines that the apprentice or appraiser’s misconduct arose, at least in part, through deficient skills necessary for some aspect of conducting an appraisal.
- (c) The failure by an appraiser to take the disciplinary continuing education ordered by the board shall be grounds for further discipline by the board and a basis for judicial action seeking to collect the penalty.

(d) A licensee's stipulation of facts shall be exempt from public disclosure to the extent permitted by RSA 91-A and if the public portion of the settlement agreement or surrender document expressly states that a separate, confidential stipulation of facts is on file with the board.

(e) The fact of license surrender and the terms of any settlement agreement pertaining thereto shall be distributed to all relevant licensing authorities and professional societies in the same manner as a final decision containing specific finding of professional misconduct.
